Did you miss the used book sale during Augustfest? No need to fret – the sale continues at the Wautoma Public Library.

Books and movies are priced. A wide variety of fiction and non-fiction items are available for all ages (children to adult). Used books make a great inexpensive gift for friends and family. The sale occurs during regular library hours, opening at 9 a.m. Monday through Saturday.