

A free seminar, "Starting and Surviving in Business: Make Your Dream a Reality," will be held from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 12.

The seminar will be presented by Jeff Ebel, whose extensive experience includes ownership of small business, SCORE in cooperation with UWSP Small Business Development Center and the Portage County Business Council.

Developing a mission statement, and the demands of running your own business will be emphasized.

The event will be held at the Portage County Business Council in the Portage County Business Park, 5501 Vern Holmes Drive, Stevens Point.

For more information and pre-registration, please call 715-346-3861 or register online at www.uwsp.edu/conted/sbdc/Pages/score.aspx.

SCORE is a volunteer, non-profit organization that acts as counselors to America's Small Businesses. It does not market any products, and all services are provided at no charge to clients. For more information go to www.score.org.