

Adam Rigden, co-owner of DQ in Wautoma and operator of an organic farm in the Town of Richford, recently spoke to the Wautoma Kiwanis Club.

He spoke about both his current products and services and about his plans to expand his organic apple cider, bee keeping, honey business, and opening his organic farm to the public. Rigden demonstrated the process of extracting cider from his organic apples.